

IDEABOARD

The SFSF Music Festival website features a purple header with navigation links for Home, Festival, Lineup, and Tickets. Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube are also present. The main banner displays the festival's name "SFSF music festival" and the dates "AUG. 22-24 2023" at "MISSION DOLORES PARK SAN FRANCISCO". A red button highlights "3-day passes 2023". Below the banner is a photo of a Ferris wheel at dusk. To the right is a form titled "ASK US ANYTHING" with fields for Name, Email, and Message. Another photo shows a person with arms raised against a blue sky.

Website lay-out

The National Arts Festival website has a white header with links to Home, About, Browse & Book, My Festival, Festival Info, and News. The main banner features the festival's logo and the dates "3 - 13 JULY 2014". A large image of performers is overlaid with text: "ARE YOU A PERFORMER?", "THE ARTIST ZONE", and a "FIND OUT MORE" button. Below the banner are three buttons for "Festival Programme", "Artists Zone", and "Travel & Stay". A footer note reads: "Whether you're looking for complete information or just a few details, we've got what you need."

A dark-themed website for a festival. The top navigation bar includes links for HOME, ABOUT, FOLIO, VIEW, FAQ, and MAIL. The main content area features a "GET IN TOUCH" section with a map showing a location in San Francisco and a "FEEDBACK" section with input fields for Name, Email, and Message, along with a "CLEAR" and "SEND" button. The footer contains copyright information: "festival © 2012 - privacy policy".
